

Robert DeLange, SPHR

President, Career Climb Consulting

Rob is President of Career Climb Consulting, LLC and has worked with 3M, AT&T, eBay, Roche, LG Electronics, Visa, and many other Fortune 500 companies as a speaker, consultant, and executive coach.

He works with Fortune 500 companies, as well as small- and medium-sized businesses building high performance teams, leadership bench strength, and a cohesive workforce. Rob is fluent in Spanish and has worked in over 15 countries around the world.

Speaking Topics

Career Stability in Unstable Times

Beyond Functions, Titles, and Job Descriptions
Doing The Best Work of Your Life (Consistently)
5 Keys to Career Success in the 21st Century

High Performance Team Secrets

Superglue for Boomers and Generations X/Y/Z
3 Touchstones for Thriving Global Virtual Teams
7 Accountability Traps That You Can Avoid

Supercharge Your Leadership

Designing a Lasting Leadership Legacy
Double Your Impact with Half the Stress
Defeating Your Self-Sabotage Patterns

Rob knows how to get directly to the root of organizational issues. Everything from relational issues to growth opportunities within teams. He is very knowledgeable in many areas of executive coaching. He has a toolbox of skills, knowledge and exercises he knows how to apply. If you ever need a coach or team advisor to grow your organization, I'd recommend you work with Rob

-- Matthew Henry, CIO of Child Care Aware

Rob is a master inspirational speaker, who combines passion, expertise, and experience, with a deep level of client understanding. He has helped LG develop a new US-based culture by bringing real-life solutions with how to better "multiply" efforts in a subsidiary organization. I highly recommend Rob to any organization looking to optimize employee potential.

--David VanderWaal, SVP of Marketing at LG Electronics

TO BOOK ROB FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT

925-784-4683 · rob@careerclimbconsulting.com

1 hour seminar

Keynote address

Half-day seminar

Full-day workshop